Disclaimer and Terms: Paper Dolls is a website for women in prison ONLY. All other applications (from men or from county jails) will be disposed of. Request for this service, with or without an official application, constitutes acceptance of all terms and future revisions to the terms.

Paper Dolls pages are free. Demand for Paper Dolls web pages exceeds time available to process applications, and not all applications are used. To ensure acceptance enclose a $5 check or money order made out to Lee Vine or the equivalent in stamps or pre-stamped envelopes. You MUST send a self-addressed stamped envelope to receive a copy of your web page and/or your photos back. There is no charge for the web page or the printout on pink paper, but a stamped envelope is required. You may have more than one photo on your page, but you MUST enclose the $5 donation if you send more than one photo for us to process for your your page (this includes sending a photo to replace a previous one if no donation was sent previously). All donations are non-refundable. Put your name on your photo(s) for identification. Applications without donations will be sorted and evaluated, and those accepted will be handled as time permits. Applications not chosen will be returned if a stamped self-addressed envelope is provided. Reviewers will choose the applications to be online.

There is no charge for anyone wishing to write to you. This allows people in the free world to easily contact you.

You may request to have your web page removed at any time. Your page will NOT be removed at the request of anyone else. Paper Dolls staff may elect to remove any web page at any time for any or no stated reason.

If anyone in the free world complains about fraud or false information, Paper Dolls staff will evaluate the complaint for believability. If your state's Department of Corrections website has inmate information, that will be used to evaluate any complaints, if relevant, as well as other websites and information available on the Internet. If Paper Dolls staff feels that the accusations have merit, the page may be deleted permanently or a notice may be posted on the individual web page indicating the complaint.

Information sent to Paper Dolls is checked on the Internet when possible. If photos are suspected to not be the person applying, she will be asked to provide an additional photo to verify the identity of the photo(s) in question. If no collaborating photo is sent, the photo(s) will not be returned. If you wish to have such a photo returned, you must provide a stamped envelope addressed to your warden and the photo will be sent there with an explanation of the problem. The prison administration will determine if you get it back or not. Fraudulent applications may be added to the fraud page.

Paper Dolls and its staff are not responsible for materials lost in the mail or by the prison. All photos sent to us with a self-addressed, stamped envelope are returned when the web page is posted. Any mail returned to Paper Dolls for ANY reason will not be re-sent without a new self-addressed, stamped envelope being provided.

You may write at any time to add, delete, or change information at the Paper Dolls site at no charge. Anything you want returned must be accompanied by a self-addressed, stamped envelope. Chest-waist-hips measurements will NOT be put on Paper Dolls, and sexual material will either be deleted or the application not processed at all. Profiles may be edited at the discretion of Paper Dolls staff.

We now offer copies of photos. These are from a professional photo service on photo paper, and are 4" x 6". There is a minimum of 2 copies per individual photo at a price of $1 per pair. This MUST be paid with a check, money order, or cash; NO STAMPS. This price is subject to change and the service may be withdrawn at any time.
